

Family Law Assistance at Reduced Expense (FLARE)

FLARE is a program that provides moderate-income families with legal help at a reduced expense in Duval, Clay, and Nassau counties. Think, "Low-Bono" or "Reduced Fee Services." FLARE is designed to meet the needs of those individuals who may not qualify for traditional pro bono services, but also cannot afford standard hourly rates and retainers.

What types of cases qualify for FLARE?

Dissolution of Marriage, Paternity, and Supplemental actions to modify a Final Judgment currently qualify through the FLARE program. Note: At this time matters involving Domestic Violence, Adoption, Temporary Relative Custody, Department of Revenue, and Motions for Contempt/Enforcement do not qualify.

How can I apply for FLARE?

An online application along with a one-time, non-refundable application fee in the amount of $40.00 is required. The application requires proof of income to determine if you financially qualify for the FLARE program. Note: Payment and submission of the application neither guarantees qualification through the FLARE program nor that you will receive an attorney.

To Apply, visit www.jaxlegalaid.org/flare
or Scan Me

Are there additional fees?

Once your application is reviewed and it's determined you qualify for the FLARE program, you will then deposit a retainer for the service you're interested in. More information about Fees can be found online at the link/QR above.

The services available are

- (1) A One-Time, One-Hour Consultation;
- (2) Hearing or Mediation Preparation;
- (3) Document Preparation without Representation;
- (4) A Mediation Appearance; or
- (5) Full Representation.

If you have additional questions, please contact us at flare@jaxlegalaid.org or call 904-356-8371, ext. 319